

NEW CARDINALS ARRIVE IN ROME

American Prelates Farley and Falconio Will Get Red Hats Thursday.

RECEPTION PLEASURES POPE

Unusual Honors Shown Princes of Church by Compatriots.

Rome, November 23.—Cardinals-Designate John M. Farley and Diomedes Falconio arrived here this morning at 8:15 o'clock. A large crowd of ecclesiastics had assembled at the station before dawn, but the train containing the two American archbishops was an hour and a quarter late. Both the prelates looked well, notwithstanding the fatigue of their long journey.

All the ecclesiastics present knelt and kissed the rings of the new cardinals-designate, while many travelers and other persons about the station joined in emphasizing the cordiality of the reception. A characteristic note was given to the occasion by some of the clerical suite carrying rolled American flags bound with white and yellow ribbons, the papal colors.

Are Warmly Congratulated. The warmest congratulations and respectful greetings were then presented to the two cardinals-designate by Mgr. Thomas F. Kennedy, rector of the American College in Rome; Mgr. Dennis O'Connell, auxiliary bishop of San Francisco; Dr. Bernard J. Mahoney, of Albany, spiritual director of the American College; Father Dolan, rector of the English-speaking Church of San Silvestro, here; Father Hilary Jordan, of St. Paul, and other American clergymen.

The superior procurator-general of the Franciscan monks took Cardinal-Designate Falconio to the Monastery of St. Anthony, while Cardinal-Designate Farley, accompanied by Mgr. Thomas F. Kennedy and Mgr. Dennis O'Connell, with Dr. Bernard W. Mahoney, drove to the Hotel Bristol, followed by the suite.

To Have Audience Soon. During the usual papal audience this morning Cardinal Merry del Val commented to the arrival of the two cardinals-designate and informed him of the cordial reception that had been accorded to them everywhere. The Pope was pleased and said he was looking forward to receiving them soon.

The secret consistory will be held Monday next and the public consistory will follow Thursday. At the secret consistory only the Pope and the cardinals resident in Rome are present. At the public consistory three days later the ceremony is much more imposing, the new cardinals receiving their red hats for the first time.

Called on Merry del Val. This afternoon Mgr. Farley was received by Cardinal Merry del Val to whom he spoke in acknowledgment of what he called the "most courteous, generous and noble recognition of America" to the selection of new cardinals. He added that American Protestants as well as Catholics had shown enthusiasm over the honor, as evidenced by more than 2,000 messages received from all classes and the monster send-off given to him when he left New York.

SOUTH SALVATION OF THE COUNTRY

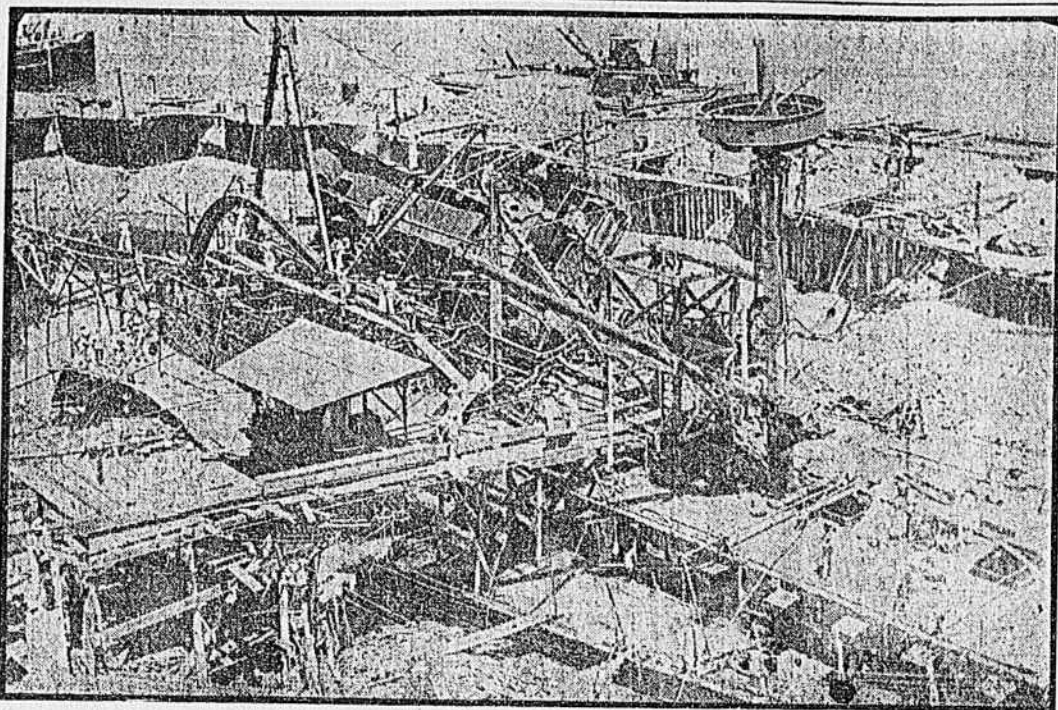

Dr. Schurman Sees Here the Conservative Progressiveness Needed.

Atlanta, Ga., November 23.—Dr. Jacob G. Schurman, president of Cornell University, uttered a note of warning against the spread of socialism in this country in an address at the University Club here to-day, where he was the guest of local alumni. At the same time he stated the South would be the salvation of the country through its conservative progressiveness.

"I have been in every section of the United States in the past few months, and have had opportunity to study the political situation thoroughly," said Dr. Schurman. "It seems to me that political conditions are undergoing a radical change—that we are returning to the discarded theories and ideas of 25-50 years ago. Socialism is gaining in every section of the Union, save in the South."

"In the South alone have I found that same spirit of conservative progressiveness which marked the spirit which animated the founders of our country, for from it will spread the right kind of conservatism, bringing back the erring sections to a realization of their mistake."

HOW WRECK OF THE MAINE LOOKS TO-DAY

ACCUSED PACKERS FAIL TO GET STAY

Chief Justice White Refuses to Grant Application of Their Attorneys.

REFERRED TO FULL BENCH

Another Effort Will Be Made When Court Assembles on December 4.

Washington, D. C., November 23.—Chief Justice White to-day refused to grant a stay in the trial of the Chicago beef packers, but referred John S. Miller and Levy Mayer, the attorneys making the application, to the entire bench with the statement that the matter was of too much importance for him to pass on individually. Attorney Miller announced that such an application to the entire court would be made at the first sitting, December 4.

Attorneys Miller and Mayer arrived in Washington early to-day. Their first move was to go to the clerk's office of the Supreme Court to check the appeal from the order of Judge Kohlsaat, of the United States Circuit Court at Chicago, denying the release of the packers on habeas corpus proceedings.

Call on Chief Justice. At the clerk's office an appointment was made by Mr. Miller to lay the matter before Chief Justice White at his residence at once. It was decided to take the entire record of the habeas corpus proceedings to the Chief Justice and to delay the formal docketing of the case until after the application for delay in the trial has been presented.

The intention of counsel for the packers was to notify Attorney-General Wickham of the intended application to the Chief Justice. When it was learned, however, that the practice did not call for this at the first application for such a stay it was decided to go before the Chief Justice without further ceremony.

While Mr. Miller was communicating with the Chief Justice Mr. Mayer was drawing up the order staying the proceedings, which it was hoped the Chief Justice would sign.

The Chief Justice took the position that, although the Supreme Court is now in recess, until a week from next Monday, it was in fact sitting, and that any application of the nature presented should be to the whole court.

Acting upon the indication of the Chief Justice, the attorneys filed with the clerk of the court a motion for a stay, so that the matter is now officially pending before the trial of the packers in Judge Carpenter's hands.

Now in Judge Carpenter's Hands. The effect of the determination of the Chief Justice not to grant a stay at this time upon the trial proceedings against the packers in Chicago is to vest in the discretion of District Judge Carpenter the question whether or not the trial of the packers shall begin before the Supreme Court acts on the application for a stay. This is the view here to-day of able lawyers.

At the same time it is admitted that a new complication has entered into an already complicated situation, and

GIRL-WIFE BRINGS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Husband Named as Defendant in Action Only Seventeen Years Old.

Elyria, O., November 23.—Wedded in April to seventeen-year-old Noyes Rand Dawley, fifteen-year-old Lillian Huntington Dawley in November wants a divorce. To-day her attorney filed a petition in the Common Pleas Court.

In April Miss Huntington was in a fashionable girl's school at New York, and her mother wife of John Marshall Huntington Dawley in November wants a divorce. To-day her attorney filed a petition in the Common Pleas Court.

At Asheville was young Dawley with his mother. They had come from Parkersburg, W. Va., where the senior Dawley is a wealthy banker. The mothers were friends. The young people, too, had known each other. Soon they decided on matrimony, and found an Asheville preacher who married them.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

Young Mrs. Dawley is a triple heiress, three estates contributing to her wealth. She inherited largely from William Marsh Rice, for whose murder Albert Patrick is serving a life term in prison in New York. Her grandfather, Huntington, was one of the early Standard Oil capitalists.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

Young Mrs. Dawley is a triple heiress, three estates contributing to her wealth. She inherited largely from William Marsh Rice, for whose murder Albert Patrick is serving a life term in prison in New York. Her grandfather, Huntington, was one of the early Standard Oil capitalists.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

Young Mrs. Dawley is a triple heiress, three estates contributing to her wealth. She inherited largely from William Marsh Rice, for whose murder Albert Patrick is serving a life term in prison in New York. Her grandfather, Huntington, was one of the early Standard Oil capitalists.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

Young Mrs. Dawley is a triple heiress, three estates contributing to her wealth. She inherited largely from William Marsh Rice, for whose murder Albert Patrick is serving a life term in prison in New York. Her grandfather, Huntington, was one of the early Standard Oil capitalists.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

Young Mrs. Dawley is a triple heiress, three estates contributing to her wealth. She inherited largely from William Marsh Rice, for whose murder Albert Patrick is serving a life term in prison in New York. Her grandfather, Huntington, was one of the early Standard Oil capitalists.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

Young Mrs. Dawley is a triple heiress, three estates contributing to her wealth. She inherited largely from William Marsh Rice, for whose murder Albert Patrick is serving a life term in prison in New York. Her grandfather, Huntington, was one of the early Standard Oil capitalists.

It is said the young couple have been kept separated as much as possible because of their youth. What ground for divorce was advanced could not be ascertained, as the attorney was permitted to withdraw the papers from the court files.

OIL KING DENIES MERRITT CHARGES

(Continued From First Page.)

was powerless to enforce continuance of the hearings under objections filed by attorneys for the United States Steel Corporation, that that corporation is now a defendant in a Federal suit for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Would Await House Action. In considering the point raised by these counsel, Representative Littleton took the position that nothing further should be done by the committee until the House had been consulted. Voting against Mr. Littleton were Chairman Stanley and Representatives McGillivuddy, of Maine, and Beall, of Texas, the only other Democrats present. The Republican members present—Gardner, of Massachusetts, and Danforth, of New York—voted with Littleton. Representative Bartlett, the fifth Democratic member, is ill at his home in Georgia, and probably will be unable to appear next month. Representative Young, of Michigan, and Sterling, of Illinois, the absent Republican members, are not expected here until next week.

Mr. Littleton, who left the sessions of the committee yesterday, has broken openly with Chairman Stanley, and will carry the question as to the future of the committee to the House. Mr. Stanley, after a conference to-day with Messrs. Beall and McGillivuddy, decided to make the question a party issue, and he will call upon the Democratic majority to sustain him in opposition to Littleton and to force the latter's resignation from the committee. He expressed confidence that he would be sustained, and has planned to continue the inquiry, despite the government suit.

The argument will be made on behalf of the committee that the mere bringing of a suit by the executive branch of the government will not assure a remedy for alleged evils of the steel trust. The American Tobacco Company dissolution suit and its results will be cited as an example.

County Loses Heavily. Duluth, Minn., November 23.—The testimony given before the United States Steel Corporation investigating committee, at Washington, by Leonidas Merritt, of Duluth, telling of a transaction in which he said he lost heavily to John D. Rockefeller, brought to light to-day the fact that St. Louis county, Minnesota, is still paying $12,500 a year interest on $250,000 in bonds voted for the Merritts in 1902.

The Merritts wanted money for their railroad project to Menasha range, and St. Louis county, at a general election, allowed them $250,000 as a bonus in thirty-year 5 per cent bonds. These were sold and the money turned over to the Merritts.

When the Merritts lost their money, the bonds kept on drawing interest. With the principal and the interest, when the bonds are due in 1932, $625,000 will be marked down as the county's loss on the transaction.

HELD UP IN TARRYTOWN. Footpad Threatens Mrs. W. S. Allen With a Pistol and Robs Her.

Tarrytown, November 23.—Mrs. William S. Allen, whose husband is connected with the American Locomotive Company, and who lives at 10 Benedict Avenue, was held up as she was walking up the Franklin Street hill on her way home after visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. D. Wilson, and was robbed of her handbag and purse by a footpad who threatened her with a revolver.

Mrs. Allen had gone as far as Washington Street and was nearly in front of the home of George W. MacAdam when the footpad stepped in front of her, and, pointing a pistol at her, said: "I want your money, and if you utter a sound I'll shoot you dead."

Mrs. Allen handed the handbag and purse to him and he vaulted over the fence and disappeared. Thomas Dwyer, a hackman, came along and took Mrs. Allen home.

Chief of Police Bowles and his men began a search for the robber in the grounds of the estates bordering on South Broadway.

OBITUARY. G. M. Bustable. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., November 23.—G. M. Bustable, aged fifty-three, of Charlottesville, died to-day at the University Hospital, following an operation. He was twice married. His second wife, a Mrs. Laws, of near Washington, survives, with two daughters. The interment will take place in Baltimore Saturday afternoon.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., November 23.—Rev. I. M. Green, son of John Marshall Green, of Stafford county, died last evening at the home of his father, of illness of over a year. He was thirty years old, and had served as rector of the Episcopal Church at Clifton Forge, resigning some time ago on account of his health. He is survived by his father, his widow, one son and one sister.

Miss Lou Smith. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Goldsboro, N. C., November 23.—Miss Lou Smith, oldest daughter of the late Dr. Daniel E. Smith, of Mount Olive, died to-day at the home of Mrs. D. E. Smith, her sister-in-law, in this place, where she had been but a few days on a visit. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Robert D. Loflin, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. Margaret Loflin, of Norfolk, and one brother, John R. Smith, of Mount Olive. The interment will take place in Mount Olive to-morrow morning.

Mrs. D. A. Guthrie. South Boston, Va., November 23.—Mrs. D. A. Guthrie, aged forty-nine years, died at her home on Logan Street here, after a lingering illness, and the funeral will take place from the Millstone Baptist Church, near Aiche, to-morrow. She is survived by her husband and the following daughters and sons: Mrs. A. T. Dickerson, Misses Edna and Lella Guthrie, Frank, Vaden, Luther and Herman Guthrie.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., November 23.—Nathan A. Fitzgerald, a prominent Danville citizen, died to-day evening, aged fifty-seven years. He had been declining in health for three years. He married three times, his last wife, who was Miss Sarah Ann Kaubach, still survives him. He also leaves two brothers, three sisters and five children.

DEATHS. STREET—Med. Thursday, November 23, 10:15 P.M. STREET. Funeral services at her home, No. 8 East Franklin Street, SATURDAY MORNING at 10 o'clock. Interment private.

DOWN—Died, in Washington, D. C., November 23, 1911, FANNIE D. W. W. of Jennings, Nottoway county, Va., sister of Belle B. Ransom, 710 East Leigh Street, this city.

she was buried at her home SUNDAY, November 26, 1911.

The Beautiful Christmas Scribner

By Henry van Dyke

"Half-Told Tales." Full of poetry and fancy, and each with a lesson for the times. Beautifully illustrated by Garth Jones.

By Richard Harding Davis

"The Invasion of England." What happened when the Germans were reported on the English Coast. Illustrated.

By Edith Wharton

"Xingu." A witty and most amusing satire on certain seekers after "Culture."

Dickens's Children

A series of four paintings by Jessie Willcox Smith, beautifully reproduced in color.

A Berkshire Winter

by Walter Prichard Eaton. The coming and the passing of the snow in the New England hills. Illustrated by Walter King Stone, printed in tint.

Other Short Stories, Poems, etc.

If you are in any doubt about your reading for 1912 a glance at the new Scribner Prospectus, sent free, will convince you that there is at least one magazine you will not care to be without. Hundreds are subscribing every day, beginning with October, to have the first of A. E. W. Mason's new serial, "The Turnstile."

$3.00 a year; 25 cents a number
CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW YORK

DUEL WITH SWORDS FOUGHT IN PARIS

Fierce Bouts Under Camera Result of Mme. Curie Scandal.

Paris, November 23.—A dispute over the merits of the charges against M. Langevin, professor of general experimental physics at the College of France, brought by his wife and involving the professor's coworker in scientific research, Mme. Curie, resulted to-day in a duel with swords between M. Chervet, editor of Gil Blas, and Leon Daudet, editor of Action Francaise.

There were several fierce bouts under the cameras of a score of photographers. Finally Daudet was wounded in the arm. A reconciliation followed.

The charges, in which the names of the two eminent scientists, Mme. Curie and Professor Langevin, have been involved, have created an immense amount of comment in the French capital, and have raised bitter party spirit. The allegations were founded on the fact that Mme. Curie and Professor Langevin were in close association with their scientific researches.

This gave rise to jealousy on the part of Mme. Langevin, who thereupon brought suit against her husband, coupling his name with that of Mme. Curie.

Mme. Curie, who was credited equally with her late husband in the discovery of radium, was after his death nominated to occupy the chair of physics, which he had held at the College of France. Since that time she has made several discoveries valuable to science.

JOHN S. BARNES DEAD
Naval Commander in Civil War and Afterward Lawyer.

New York, November 23.—John Sanford Barnes, president of the International Railroad Company of Texas and of the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company, is dead at his home here. He was born at the West Point Military Academy seventy-six years ago, and was educated at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He served in the navy in the Civil War in command of the ships Dawn, Hale, Paul Jones and Lonsape.

After the war Mr. Barnes went into the Naval Academy as head of the department of ethics. Inter-retiring to take up the practice of law in New York City. Later he became a member of the banking firm of J. S. Kennedy & Co., devoting himself to railroad securities.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Are You Ever Sick?

For Prompt Relief

If you suffer from any of the troubles so common to women, or if you are merely weak, and lack life and energy, you are urged to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Cardui is a purely vegetable, tonic medicine for women, and as its success of more than 50 years clearly shows, it can, as a reliable remedy, be depended on, in time of need. Mrs. L. E. Hibbs, of Morton's Gap, Va., says: "I was taken sick, and confined to my bed, most of the time, for 10 months. I had ulcers and then a tumor.

The second doctor that treated me said my last chance was an operation, and when the third doctor was called in, he told me it was doubtful that I would recover.

I wouldn't consent to the operation, and decided to try Cardui. When I had taken two bottles, I felt better. In two months, I could go about and do light house work. Now I feel well and the tumor is gone. I heartily recommend Cardui to suffering women. I am sure it will cure."

Try a bottle today.

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

SAND

C. P. Lathrop & Co.